Programs and Course Structure

B. Pharm

SVKM's Dr. Bhanuben Nanavati College of Pharmacy offers four-year B. Pharm. degree course as per Mumbai University norms. Pharmacy Curriculum includes a wide variety of subjects, thus reflecting its multidisciplinary facet. The curriculum of B. Pharm course includes one month of industrial training after semester VI

M. Pharm

The college offers M. Pharm degree course of two-year duration as per University of Mumbai norms in three specializations viz. Pharmaceutics, Quality Assurance & Pharmacology. The curriculum includes theory subjects in the first year followed by research project and submission of dissertation in the second year.

Specialization

Pharmaceutics	Quality Assurance	Pharmacology
Pharmaceutics is the science of dosage form design that deals with the process of turning a new chemical entity (NCE) into a safe and effective medication. The master's program also helps student get a good exposure of NDDS i.e. Novel Drug Delivery System for better efficacy and specific targeting of drugs.	Quality assurance involves a planned and systematic set of activities implemented to fulfill quality requirements for a product or service. The course covers the latest industry trends, standards like ISO and Six Sigma, and the importance of quality assurance in the manufacture of food, service and pharmaceuticals.	The Department of pharmacology is involved in research and academic activities. The subjects in Pharmacology introduce students to the unified study of the interaction of chemical agents and living matter. The emphasis is placed on the principles of drug action and on the reactions of living processes to drugs.

Ph.D. Subjects

Ph.D. research center is affiliated to the University of Mumbai in the following specializations:

Pharmaceutics

The doctoral degree in Pharmaceutics train research scholars in the fundamental aspects of drug absorption, disposition, and drug delivery to optimize drug efficacy and minimize drug toxicity. Drug disposition, or pharmacokinetics, pertains to facets of drug absorption, distribution, delivery, and elimination.

Pharmaceutical Chemistry

Ph.D. in Pharmaceutical Chemistry course allows students to specialize in a concentration area that corresponds to a stage in the drug development process, such as discovery, optimization, assessment, or outcomes. Other concentration areas may include pharmaceutical policy, molecular pharmaceutics, medicinal chemistry, and pharmacotherapy.

Alumni Speaks

Mr. Shyamsunder Gupta
M.Pharm, (2012-2014)
Senior Executive - Injectables Scientific Affairs
Mylan Laboratories Ltd.

It was a great and beautiful journey in BNCP! Firstly, I would like to extend my warm regards and gratitude to the entire BNCP faculty and staff. Our institute provided us the best facilities and modern state of the art machineries. It is one of the best QUALITY research driven and highly industry application oriented.

The institute focused not only just up to the syllabus and technical but also towards management skills and soft skills competencies required in the corporates. Various extracurricular and co-curricular activities were organized that helped to shape our confidence and leadership skills. I always would be thankful and highly indebted to BNCP.

I convey my best wishes to BNCP and students for their growth and success.

M.Pharm (2012- 2014)
Founder, Skinn Rituals

Dr. Bhanuben Nanavati College of Pharmacy is a place where you can find an mixture of learning, fun, culture, literature and many such life preaching activities. Here the atmosphere is full of motivation and innovation.All the teaching and non-teaching faculties are enthusiastic and always ready to help.

I would to thank BNCP for providing me a platform to enhance my skills and an opportunity to showcase them.
