“Vata Vriksha”

Shloka: “Vata-vṛkṣa-samaṁ sansthānaṁ, sthiraṁ dīptaṁ
ca vidyayā, Chāyāṁ yacchati śiṣyebhyaḥ, sevayā jñānavistr̥tam.”

This Sanskrit shloka beautifully conveys the essence of SVKM's Dr. Bhanuben Nanavati College of Pharmacy (BNCP), comparing it to the Banyan tree, a symbol of strength, stability, and shelter. The imagery of the Banyan tree is perfect for an educational institution because it is deeply rooted in values, just as the college is grounded in principles of knowledge, service, and ethical growth.

The phrase “Vata-vṛkṣa-samaṁ sansthānaṁ” symbolizes the college as a strong and resilient institution, just like the Banyan tree that stands tall through the years. It offers its students not only a sturdy foundation but also a place of guidance and growth, nurturing them as they expand their knowledge and understanding.

The shloka's mention of “Chāyāṁ yacchati śiṣyebhyaḥ” reflects the guidance and support the institute provides to its students, just as the Banyan tree offers shade to those beneath it, protecting them from external challenges. The deeper meaning of “sevayā jñāna-vistr̥tam” emphasizes how the college extends the reach of its knowledge through service, preparing students to contribute to society.

Overall, this shloka beautifully encapsulates the commitment of SVKM's BNCP in fostering intellectual, moral, and personal growth, nurturing its students with knowledge and ethical values, much like the nurturing presence of the Banyan tree.

"Let noble thoughts come to us from every side." - Rig Veda
